Genealogical data re the Ellis family -- 1852 to 1963

Prepared by Grace M. Breck, Canby, Oregon, September 1963

Many years ago, our Uncle Herbert W. Ellis, prepared and distributed genealogical records giving details about our Ellis ancestors of the first ten generations,--that is, since the settlement of Richard Ellice in Dedham, Massachusetts, in the year 1632. A skeleton outline of our ancestors in direct line for three centuries, as taken from Uncle Herbert's record, is as follows:

2014943

First generation: Richard Ellice, born in Dedham, England (exact date unknown). He came to America in 1632, and settled in Dedham, Mass. He died in 1694.

Second generation: Eliezer Ellice, seventh child of above, born 1663.

Third generation: Eleazer Ellice, second child of above, born 1692.

Fourth generation: Timothy Ellis, third child of above, born 1724. The following details about Timothy Ellis are quoted from Uncle Herbert's record: He was Sergeant, Major, and Colonel in the United States Army during the Revolutionary War, from 1775 to 1783. He was a member of the New Hampshire Provincial Congress in 1775, a member of the New Hampshire House of Representatives in 1776, and a Major in the Revolutionary War. He was promoted to Colonel in 1779. He died in Reading, Vermont, in 1814.

Fifth generation: Timothy Ellis, first child of above, born 1746.

Sixth generation: Timothy Ellis, first child of above, born 1769.

Seventh generation: Stephen Thompson Ellis, fifth child of above, born 1827.

Our grandfather, Stephen Thompson Ellis, was born March 15, 1827, in Walden, Vermont. His parents were Timothy and Susannah Thompson Ellis. His mother, Susannah, died five days after Grandpa was born; and on January 1, 1828, Great-Grandfather Timothy Ellis, married (second) Judith Elanohard, who lived to be 97 years of age. A few of the older cousins remember Great-Grandma Judith, who died in Vineland, N.J. February 11, 1891. Great-Grandfather Ellis died in Vineland, N.J. February 10, 1880.

On October 20, 1852, Grandpa Stephen T. Ellis married Elizabeth Naomi Boynton Coburn, daughter of Bradlee Colburn and Naomi Boynton Colburn. (In 1840, the name Colburn was legally changed to Coburn.) Grandma Elizabeth Ellis was born in Hollis, New Hampshire, February 23, 1835. In 1863 our grandparents moved from Walden, Vermont to Vineland, New Jersey, where they lived during the rest of their lives,--they lived to see all of their 27 grandchildren. Grandpa Ellis died November 14, 1901, and Grandma Ellis died July 23, 1911.
